NORTHWESTERN UNIVERSITY - OFFICE OF RESEARCH DEVELOPMENT

National Endowment for the Humanities: Dialogues on the Experience of War

www.neh.gov/grants/education/dialogues-the-experience-war

FOA#: 20150915-AV

SUMMARY OF OPPORTUNITY:

The program supports the study and discussion of important humanities sources about war, in the belief that these sources can help U.S. military veterans and others to think more deeply about the issues raised by war and military service. The discussions are intended to promote serious exploration of important questions about the nature of duty, heroism, suffering, loyalty, and patriotism. The humanities sources can be drawn from history, philosophy, literature, and film—and they may and should be supplemented by testimonials from those who have served. NEH funding can support the incorporation of creative writing and the performing or visual arts in the discussion programs, so long as they complement the interpretive focus of the project.

The program awards grants of up to $100,000 that will support:

1. The recruitment and training of discussion leaders; and
2. Following the training program, the convening of at least two discussion programs.

Discussion programs must focus on:

1. The close study of sources drawn from at least two distinct genres (such as fiction and historical writings, or memoirs and artworks, or philosophy and film); and
2. At least two historically distinct conflicts treated in depth: one from the earliest wars through World War I, and a second from the wars after World War I.
